

JUDY CHARTRAND

Graceful Blooms

Opening: Saturday, January 18, 2025

January 18 - February 22, 2025

We are thrilled to present a new body of hand built ceramic works by Vancouver based Judy Chartrand, marking our fifth presentation of her work. Dancers, florals, insects, berries, dogs, and birds fill the gallery in an occasion of wild revelry. The use of humour, and whimsical imagery brings an element of surprise and playfulness, while also conveying deeper cultural meanings, specifically the celebration of “Native joy”.

Judy Chartrand is a contemporary artist of Manitoba Cree heritage, based in Vancouver. Her ceramic and installation-based work features rich elements of ready-made appropriations and repurposed materials. Most recently Judy was a finalist in the Sobey 2024 Award, and her work is currently on view at the National Gallery of Canada.
