

Lauren Crazybull

(B. 1994, Niitsitapi ((Member of Kainai First Nation)), Dené, lives and works in Vancouver BC, Canada)

Education

2023 Master of Fine Arts in Interdisciplinary Arts, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver BC

Selected Solo Exhibitions

- 2025 Lauren Crazybull: Wish you were here, Contemporary Calgary, Calgary, AB
2024 Untelling, Hess Gallery, University of Lethbridge, Lethbridge, AB
in between endings, Lauren Crazybull, Macaulay + Co., Vancouver BC
2023 Not Returning, Never Returning, Liquidation World Vancouver, Vancouver BC
2020 Tsima Kohtotsitapiihpa, Southern Alberta Art Gallery, Lethbridge AB
Tsima Kohtotsitapiihpa, Latitude 53, Edmonton AB
2019 The Future All At Once, McMullen Gallery, Edmonton AB

Selected Group Exhibitions

- 2024 221A Fellowship Shortlist Group Exhibition, 825 Pacific, Vancouver BC
2023 Autofictional MFA Group Show, Audain Gallery, Vancouver BC
Kingston Prize Finalist Exhibition, Gananoque Firehall theatre Group Show, Gananoque ON 2022 All Are Temporary Worlds MFA Spring Show, Simon Fraser University, Vancouver BC
2021 Salt Spring Art Prize Finalist Exhibition, Mahon Hall, Salt Spring Island BC
The Scene, Art Gallery of Alberta, Edmonton AB
Mamanaw Pekiskwewina, Latitude 53, Edmonton AB
2020 Amiskwaciwaskahikan, Ociciwan Contemporary Art Centre, Edmonton AB
2019 Kingston Prize Finalist Exhibition, Gananoque Firehall theatre Group Show, Gananoque ON

Public Art Projects

- 2023 City of Vancouver, Platforms: Nine Places for Seeing, Marine Drive Canada Line Station, Vancouver BC
2018 Canadian Art Magazine, Commissioned Mural, DC3 Gallery, Edmonton AB

Awards

- 2023 Finalist, Kingston Portrait Prize
Queen Elizabeth II's Platinum Jubilee Medal (Alberta)
2022 Audain Travel Award
2021 Finalist, Salt Spring National Art Prize
2020 Eldon & Anne Foote Edmonton Visual Arts Prize
Lieutenant Governor of Alberta Emerging Artist Award
2019 Finalist, Kingston Portrait Prize